September 2014

Dear Supporter of Music,

This fall, the North Andover Music Association in conjunction with the North Andover High School will once again host the New England Scholastic Band Association Marching Band Competition--NESBA! This year 17 bands from across Massachusetts and New Hampshire will perform on Saturday, October 4, 2014. Bands, parents, and spectators from local communities such as Andover, Billerica, Lowell, Methuen, North Andover, Salem, and Wakefield, among many others, will meet in our community to cheer for these talented high school musicians. We expect more than 2,000 spectators this year. We look forward to showcasing our very talented music students as well as our beautiful high school and athletic facilities. It's an exciting event!

Support from local businesses helps pay for uniforms, instruments, buses, scholarships, clinicians, and many other expenses that don't fit into our school budget. Your generosity keeps music in our schools.

Enclosed is an advertisement form for our program booklet. We invite you to attend the competition, and we also hope you will take advantage of the diversity of communities that will be in attendance and place your ad in our program.

Please feel free to contact me with questions at chandrikashh@yahoo.com. For more information on the event, please visit us at www.northandovermusic.org

Thank you,

Chandrika Shah
